Agreement Detail

Primary Colors Gallery will exercise reasonable care and caution when handling artwork, but assumes no responsibility for loss, damage, or theft. In order to protect the artwork, artists may carry whatever insurance is necessary to cover such contingencies. Transportation of the artwork and the expenses is the artist's responsibility. Artwork must be for sale. The artist retains seventy percent of the sale and thirty percent is commissioned to the gallery. Payment to the artist is processed within thirty days. Primary Colors Gallery assumes permission to use images of selected artworks or the artist' statement for publicity purposes.
